听下面的独白,回答第 18 至 20 小题。

In our school, there is a radio station. I work for the station. Every morning, we tell the students about the weather and the latest news, and the sports news is the students' favorite. In the afternoon, we often read some beautiful poems or play some popular songs. When the test time comes, we tell the students how to study for their exams and the rules in the exams. Of course, our students can give their best wishes to their friends and teachers through our station. If they have any problem, they can write to the Team Talk and some advice is given as soon as possible.
