第三节：听短文回答问题

Jack lives in a small town in England. He stayed in his own country for holidays before. But last year he thought, "I never go outside my country. All my best friends went to Russia, and they all said it was nice. I also want to be there this year."

So he went to Russia and stayed there for a few days. One day, he went out for a walk. In England, people drive on the left, but in Russia they drive on the right. Jack forgot about this. While he was crossing a busy street, a car almost knocked him down. Jack stood there for a few seconds, full of fear. Then he came to himself and said, "Where am I?" An old man selling maps ran to Jack at once and said, "Maps of the city, sir."
